

Ahoy Mateys!
Tampa
Cruis-A-Cade
Boat Club
Invites ye to
Gasparilla 2010
January 29th, 30th, & 31st

Once a year the city gives way to Jose Gaspar and his friends and lets the pirates reign supreme. Join yer fellow pirate brethren as Tampa Bay celebrates all things pirate at the Gasparilla Pirate Fest for 2010. Jose Gaspar and friends will invade Tampa on Saturday, January 30th. The Tampa Cruis-A-Cade pirates will celebrate all weekend searching for Pirate Treasure! Talk, dress, and act like a pirate for the weekend at our boat club. Tha'll be games of chance, booty prizes, and tests of pirate strength to keep ye active through the weekend. Arrive on Friday and hang out with the other pirates at the club for festivities or cruise Tampa Bay searchin' for pirate ships. We'll be feastin' and partyin' on Friday evening. After a continental breakfast, our ships will join in the invasion on Saturday morn. Downtown Tampa will host the Parade of Pirates and the Pirate Fest Street Festival. Saturday evening we'll be sharin' the spoils of the day with a true pirate feast. Put on yer best pirate garb for our annual Pirate Costume Dinner & Dance! Tha'll be prizes, raffles, and contests all through the evenin'. Sunday morning we'll have a goodbye breakfast to celebrate bein' a pirate! So dust off your breeches, boots, and scabbards and get ready for a buccaneer-good time! Come for the whole weekend or just for one event and let the pirate in ye come out and play! AARRGH!!

This event is open to the public.

A weekend package is available for $60.00 per person.

Friday and Saturday night dinner and entertainment events are available for $25.00 per person.

Prices will be slightly higher at the door. Register early!

Boat slips and campsites are available to stay for the whole weekend.

See our website (www.cruisacade.com) for registration forms and complete details on prices.

More Questions? Contact Registration coordinator Shelly Howman (mhowman@verizon.net or 813-300-0759).